- 1. No candidate will be allowed to quit the examination room on any day until the expiration of half an hour from the time fixed for the commencement of the examination, and candidates arriving after the expiration of that half hour will not be admitted.
- 2. No candidate will be allowed to re-enter the examination room during the hour of examination, after once quitting it, or to leave the room, without finally giving up his answer-papers.
- 3. Any candidate detected in speaking to, or in any way communicating with, any other candidate will be at once removed from the room, and the circumstance will be reported to the Commissioner.
- 4. No candidate will, on any account, be allowed to take into the examination room slates, books, manuscripts, or papers of any kind. Any one detected in the violation of this rule or having recourse to any unfair practices, will be removed from the room, and the occurrence will be reported to the Commissioner. The candidate will, however, be allowed the use of mathematical instruments for drawing figures or ruling lines.
- 5. A cardidate having completed his paper will rise from his seat and remain standing until the Superintendent takes his answer-papers. Any candidates wishing to ask any question of the Superintendent will pursue the same course, but will on no account leave his place.
- 6. Any papers sent up without the candidate's name and number affixed will not be examined.
- 7. Candidates will not be allowed to take any papers, except their question-papers, out of the examination room.
- 8. Candidates are forbidden to tear up papers or to throw ink or papers on the floor. All "spoilt copies," etc., should be left on the desk where the candidate has been writing.
 - 9. Candidates are required to bring their own Pens.

RULES FOR EXAMINERS.

- 1. Every question-paper should be complete in itself with its proper heading written out in full and should be legibly written with few alterations and additions as possible.
- 2. The questions should be written out fairly and legibly on one side only of each half sheet of paper, so as to admit of the paper being sent to the Press in the state in which it is received.
- 3. If the questions asked in any paper are such as require special instructions to be issued to the candidates, or paper of special size and quality to be supplied to them, a memorandum should accompany the question-paper giving full information on these points.
- 4. Every paper should be signed by the Examiner who sets it.
- 5. All question-papers should be forwarded to the Secretary to the Commissioner in double covers, the inner cover being sealed with the private seal of the Examiner, and marked 'Confidential,' by the 1st October the latest and the mark book containing the results of the valuation of the answer-papers by 8th January the latest.

If no letter or memorandum accompanies the papers, the contents should be noted on the inner cover.

- 6. No duplicate copy of the original question-paper should be kept by an Examiner, after the latter has been despatched. All notes rough drafts made in preparing the paper should be carefully destroyed.
- 7. When a 'proof' of the question-paper is sent to an Examiner for correction, it should not, as a rule, be kept longer than one day. If from any cause the return of a proof is delayed beyond that time, the Examiner should write and explain the cause of the delay. The original manuscript paper sent with the proof must be returned with the corrected proof.

- 8. Any letter, petition or communication of any kind neceived by an Examiner from a candidate should be forwarded to be dealt with by the Commissioner. No Examiner should communicate personally or directly with any candidate on any matter connected with the examination.
- 9. As soon as the packets of answer-papers are received by an Examiner, they should be carefully examined to see whether they have been tampered with. They should then be put away under lock and key, along with the mark-book and other papers connected with the examination, in some place where no one but the Examiner can possibly have access to them.
- 10. In valuing the answer-papers of candidates, the Examiner must adhere to the maximum prescribed in the Rules. No fractions should be shown in the total marks of a candidate entered in the mark-book or register, all fractions less than half being omitted, and half a mark and all fractions of a mark more than half being allowed to count as one.
- 11. When two or more Examiners are appointed to examine in the same subject, it is expected that they will, in communication with one another, arrange for the valuation of the answer-papers according to some definite principle. Ordinarily, the person who sets the paper, will distribute the marks among the several questions of the paper, and communicate the distribution he makes to his colleagues, with such instructions as he may think necessary for their guidance in view to securing evenness of standard in awarding marks to answers.
- 12. When valuing the answer-papers in Translation in Branches I. & II. deduct \(\frac{1}{2} \) a mark for each error in Grammar or Idiom and 1 or more marks for the portion left untranslated according to its length.
- 13. If an examiner has reason to suspect that a candidate must have had recourse to copying or other malpractice, the marks awarded to the candidate should be entered in red ink in the mark-book with an explanatory note in the margin, or at the foot of the page. The answer-papers of the suspected candidate should be forwarded for inspection, with a confidential report setting forth clearly and fully the grounds of suspicion.

- 14. If among the answer-papers received by one Examiner, there are papers which ought properly to have gone to another Examiner, such papers should at once be forwarded to the Secretary to the Commissioner, with a letter stating from what station or stations they were received.
- 15. The results of the examination should always be forwarded to the Secretary to the Commissioner on or before the date fixed for their submission. If from any cause, an Examiner is prevented from submitting his results within the time stipulated or prescribed, the proper course for him is to write and explain the delay, and request that further time be allowed him. It will then be for the Commissioner to consider whether, regard being had to the urgency of the case, any fresh arrangement should be made for the completion of the work.
- 16. Every Examiner should be careful to sign and date his mark-book, and enter on the first page the name of the subject in which he examined and the maximum marks adopted by him.
- 17. All alterations and erasures made in the mark-book should be initialed by the Examiner.
- 18. Every Examiner is expected to keep a record of the work done by him in connection with the examination,—the number of papers set and the number of papers valued by him.—These particulars should be furnished to the Secretary to the Commissioner.
 - a. Examiners are required to keep the answers papers of the candidates up to 1st March following the issue of the Middle School, Examination Results in case of any candidate requiring his answer-papers revalued. After that date they may be destroyed.
- 19. If in the interval between the date of his appointment and the date of examination, an Examiner leaves his place of residence, or is transferred from one station to another, the change in his address should at once be communicated to the Secretary to the Commissioner. If the change occurs at or about the time of examination, and when it is too late for it to be communicated to the Superintendents, the Examiner must make his own arrangements with the postal authorities for the transmission to him of the packets of answer-papers.

- 20. All communications from Examiners residing in the Districts, sent through His Highness' post, should be forwarded on "Service."
- 21. Examiners will be remunerated according to the scale senctioned by the Commissioner.

INSTRUCTIONS TO SUPERINTENDENTS.

- 1. No persons other than the Superintendents, candidates, and such servants as have been nominated by the Chief Superintendent, should be allowed to exter the Examination Hall. The gates of the compound should be guarded by Police, with orders to refuse admission to all others, and expel any loiterers within the gates during Examination hours.
- 2. The admission of peons, etc., should be avoided as much as possible. If their admission is necessary, they should be carefully watched. Employés of the Educational Department, except Inspectors of Schools, Principals and Professors of Colleges, and Headmasters of High Schools, should never be employed in the Examination under any circumstances. No letters or telegrams should be delivered to the candidates.
- 3. The Chief Superintendent at any centre will see that no one is appointed a Superintendent, who has a relative appearing for the Examination at that centre.
- 4. The Chief Superintendent is requested to satisfy himself on the day before the Examination commences that all is in readiness, the stationery sufficient, the tables arranged, &c. A separate table should be provided for each candidate when possible, and the label bearing the name and number. The table should all face in one direction, and should be at least three feet apart every way. When a table cannot be provided for each boy, the Superintendent will see that each candidate's distance from his neighbour on either hand is at least five feet, and that the parallel space between the tables is not less than three feet.
- 5. If the Superintending body at any centre does not contain an English knowing member, the Chief Superintendent should apply to the Inspector of the Division, who will send up the Inspecting School Master of the - district, if he knows English, or some qualified teacher from some other centre. It must, however, be distinctly understood that this official is not to distribute or collect papers, open or seal covers, hold direct communication with candidates, or move about in the Examination room. His services may be utilized to read out the English Dictation paper to the candidates, carry out such English writing work as may be required, and explain any technicalities that may arise in connection with the Examination. He should be accommodated with a chair and table near the Chief Superintendent.

- 6. The Superintendents should move about freely during the Examination. If a candidate wants anything he must stand up, and a Superintendent, or person deputed by the Chief Superintendent, will go to him, but he must not leave his place.
- 7. The Chief Superintendent is requested to give notice that on the first day of the Examination the candidates are to come half an hour before the Examination begins, he will then see that they have their fee neceipts, and that their appearance agrees with the description given in the voucher attached thereto. If there be any case of doubt, he will immediately direct the candidate to get himself identified by some person known to, and trusted by the Chief Superintendent. Such candidate will be allowed to sit for the Examination, but notice of the suspicion, and of the result of the subsequent enquiry, must be sent to the Commissioner's Office; should the enquiry be unsatisfactory, the Chief Superintendent will allow him to proceed with the Examination but will report the matter forthwith to the Commissioner, stating clearly what his suspicions are.
- 8. The days and hours fixed for each paper are given in the Time Table on page 24 of the Middle School Calendar and are to be carefully adhered to.
- 9. The Examination papers for all the days of the Examination will be forwarded to the Chief Superintendent in a sealed cover. The Chief Superintendent will see that the inner seals and envelopes are intact, but he will not open them until the candidates are seated and the proper time has arrived, when the seals will be broken in the presence of all the Superintendents, and the certificate herewith forwarded signed by the Chief Superintendent and his assistants, and despatched to the Commissioner's Office by the first post. Should any paper be opened by mistake, it must be at once re-sealed by the Chief Superintendent and the circumstances reported to the Commissioner.

- 10. Candidates should be referred to the rules published for their guidance, copies of which are to be posted at the entrance of the Examination-room. The Chief Superintendent is requested to see that these rules are strictly carried out. The rules should be read on the first day, ten minutes before the hour fixed for the Examination to begin, and care should be taken to see that they are distinctly inderstood by the candidates, as no subsequent plea of ignorance will be admitted.
- 11. Each paper is to be distributed exactly at the hour named on it, but, if the Chief Superintendent is unavoidably prevented from doing so, the full time noted on the paper must be allowed. In no case, however, should the delay exceed ten minutes. Notice of any such occurrence must be reported to the Commissioner.
- 12. All candidates must be asked to put on the Chief Superintendent's table anything in the shape of books, papers, or letters, and warned that anything of the sort found in their possession afterwards will cause their exclusion from the Examination. The Chief Superintendent will have all such books and papers removed beyond the reach of the candidates till the Examination is over. Candidates speaking to one another after the paper is given out, or those detected copying, must be reported to this office with full details.
- 13. Five minutes before the close of the period allowed candidates must be warned, and precisely at the expiration of the time, the answer books must be collected; and no candidate must be permitted to retain his paper any longer.
- 14. All the answer books must then be collected and counted, and it must be carefully seen that the number is correct. They must be immediately sealed up before the Chief Superintendent leaves the room. The Chief Superintendent should then lock them up, and at the close of the day he should forward the whole of the papers in a stout cover to the Examiners, as directed in the list of Examiners furnished. Great care must be taken, especially with the Language, Geography, History, Algebra, and Geometry papers, that the answers are put into the proper covers and that the numbers tally with the list, as much confusion frequently arises through want of care in this respect on the part of Superintendents.

15. Chief Superintendents are requested to make a plan of the Room or Rooms in which the Examination is held showing the position and number of each candidate, and send it in to the Commissioner's Office immediately the Examination is over.

- 16. Special care should be taken in the putting up and despatching of the answer papers of the Translations under Brauch F. A. and Branch II. Vernacular.
- 17. The Superintendent will enter the name and register number of each absent candidate on the memorandum sent to the Examiners.
- 18. The reading of the Dictation paper needs the greatest care. In order to avoid complaints on this point, the following rules must be explicitly attended to:

Not more than 40 candidates should be dictated to by one person. Take a case of 110 candidates, there must be three persons to dictate who should be arranged at such different parts of the room as will allow of all hearing well one or other of the readers.

The candidates will be forbidden to write during the first reading of the paper. For the reading of the passage, the Chief Superintendent will break it up into convenient divisions, as marked in the paper, and these will be read in the following way:—

All will be ordered to stand up, put down their pens and listen. No. 1 Superintendent will read the first portion marked out, No. 2 the same portion, and No. 3 the same; then No. 1 will read the second marked off portion, No. 2 the second, and so on. When all has thus been read over, the candidates will be told to sit down and write, and the whole paper will be read again in the same manner, each marked off portion being read as before by each Superintendent. After this, there will be a third reading, more rapid than the first or second, to allow candidates an opportunity of correcting errors or supplying omissions.

Clear, distinct enunciation must be aimed at, and the voice should be raised. When there are not more than 40 candidates sitting in the same room, the Chief Superintendent will direct the candidates to listen only, and read through the passage. He will then direct the candidates to write, and will read each marked off portion separately once, allowing sufficient time for each clause, and, as before, there will be a third reading. On no account will any Superintendent answer any question during the dictation, or repeat a word at a candidate's request. The reading of the passage should, if possible, be entrusted to educational officers accustomed to the work.

- 19. The reading of the Vernacular paper must be managed as above, and if the officers employed as Superintendents are unable to do the work, timely arrangements should be made for obtaining the services of competent Munshis, or Pandits. Such persons should be carefully instructed beforehand in the mode in which this duty is to be performed.
- 20. Superintendents are not at liberty to give any explanation regarding the Examination papers to the candidates.
- 21. Stationery, estimated to be sufficient, has been previously supplied, and, if due care in its expenditure be taken by Superintendents, there will be no necessity to supplement this supply by purchasing locally. What is left over at the end of the Examination should be handed to the Head Master at that centre for the next examination, and a list of the articles handed over should at the same time be furnished to the Commissioner's Office, except in the case of Head-quarters where the surplus should be returned direct to that office.

- 22. The Chief Superintendent is requested to record the daily attendance of each candidate in duplicate in the Name lists which will be furnished. The duplicate copy should be sent to the Commissioner's Office on the last day of the Examination.
- 23. Superintendents who have occasion to sand covers by post are requested to send them on Registered Service Post. The words "On H. H. the Nizam's Service" should be distinctly written in English and, their equivalent, in Urdu. The omission of these words is a source of considerable unnecessary expense on account of postage bearing. Papers from local centres, i.e., Chadarghat, Secunderabad, and Bolarum, should be sent out daily with a trustworthy peon by the Chief Superintendent and receipts obtained.
- 24. The Commissioner considers that in ordinary circumstances one Assistant Superintendent for every 30 candidates is sufficient, but if owing to the shape or size of the rooms or to other causes this number is found too small for the proper supervision of candidates, it may be exceeded. In no circumstances are writers and Munshis to be employed as Superintendents.

The following scale of remuneration for Superintendents has been sanctioned by the Commissioner, and will be paid, provided the Examination Fee Fund, will admit of the payment.

H. S. Rs.

The Chief Superintendent Assistant do.

... 3 0 0 per diem.

44 . INSTRUCTIONS TO SUPERINTENDENTS.

- 25. At centres where the number of candidates are over 100, the Chief Superintendent shall receive H. S. Rs. 3 per diem for the first 100 or fraction thereof and half as much again for every additional hundred or fraction thereof over the first hundred.
- 26. After the Examination is over the Chief Superintendents will submit romuneration Bills for adjustment to the Secretary to the Commissioner drawn up in accordance with Rule 25, a blank form of which will be supplied.
- 27. The Commissioner's Office will not defray the expenses of any bills incurred for carriage hire or refreshments.

[This paper must be read to the candidates thrice. During the first reading, the candidates should simply hear the passage dictated. Then the Superintendent will dictate each marked portion once only, allowing the candidates sufficient time to take it down. During the third reading the candidates correct any errors or supply omissions.]

At the battle | of the Alma, | a great | Russian redoubt | was the object | of a | furious attack | on the part | of a section | of the | British forces. | Our soldiers | tore up | towards it | with a rush, | and the Russians | began | to retreat, | carrying | off | their guns. | Then a small | child-like youth | ran forward | before the throng, | carrying a colour.

This was | young Anstruther. | He carried | the Queen's colour | of the Royal Welsh. | Fresh | from the games | of English school-life, | he ran fast; | for, | heading | all who strove | to keep up | with him, | he gained | the redoubt, | and dug | the buttend | of the flagstaff | into the parapet: | and there | for a moment | he stood | holding it tight | and taking breath. | Then he was | shot dead; | but | his small hands, | still clasping | the flag-staff, | drew it down | along with him, | and | the crimson silk | lay covering | the boy | with its folds. | But only | for a moment, | because | William Evans, | a swift-footed soldier, | ran forward, | gathered up the flag, | and raising it proudly, | made claim | to the great redoubt | on behalf | of the Royal Welsh. |

The officer and tailor were not long absent, and brought back the barber with them. whom they presented to the Sultan. He appeared like a man of about ninety. His beard and eyebrows were as white as snow, his ears hung down a considerable length, and his nose was very long. The Sultan could scarcely refrain from laughter at the sight of him. "Man of Silence," said he to the barber, "I understand • that you are acquainted with many wonderful histories; I wish very much that you would relate one of them to me." "Sire," replied the barber, "for the present we will, if it please your Majestv. not speak of the histories which I may know; but I most humbly entreat you to permit me to ask one question, and that is, for what reason this Christian, this Jew, this Mussulman, and this hunchback whom I see extended on the ground, are in your Majesty's presence?" The Sultan smiled at the liberty the barber took, and said, "Of what consequence can that be to you?" "Sire," returned the barber. "it is of consequence to me to make this inquiry; namely, that your Majesty may know that I am not that great talker which some people pretend, but a man who has very justly acquired the title of the Silent."

This speech made every one look upon the barber as a buffoon, or like an old man who had lost his senses,

On revisiting Tehran last autumn, I was struck with the evidence of progress and improvement in Persia, and on returning home I formed the idea of publishing a short account of my journey, with observations and opinions which are based on my previous experiences, and have reference also to what has been recorded by other travellers. In carrying out this idea, I have made use of information given in the well-known books on Persia by Malcolm, Fraser, Watson and Curzon.

It is said that in the olden days there was an old woman living in a cottage under a large hill beneath which flowed a river which fell into the sea not far from this spot. She had a cat and a couple of dogs who were very friendly together. One morning the cat got very ill, and thought she was going to die. She spoke to her friends, the dogs, about it, and said she thought her end had come. One of the dogs thereupon went into the jungle and brought her some herb and said, eat of this and you will get well. The cat thereupon ate a little of it and she got well. The other dog, in the meantime went and killed a hen and gave it to his friend, the cat, to eat, and she thanked both her kind friends.

(a) "Maman! Maman!" s'écria la jeune souris en se précipitant au-devant d'elle. Mais la souris du tonneau se recula sans répondre.

"Maman, ne me reconnais-tu pas? Je suis ta fille, la sœur de ton enfant qui s'est noyée dans le pot aulait."

"Comment! c'est toi? dit la mère, d'ou sors-tu? Non vraiment, je ne t'aurais jamais reconnue."

- ta jeune souris raconta tout ce qui lui était arrivé, et la maman, heureuse de retrouver un de ses enfants, ne lui fit aucun reproche. Après le souper, qui fut très gai, les danses commencèrent, et toutes les souris qui avaient voyagé pendant l'étè, racontèrent leurs aventures. L'une avait bien failli se noyer en traversant un ruisseau, l'autre avait eu le bonheur de trouver un trou au moment où le chat allait mettre la patte sur elle; une troisième s'était echappée de la souricière. Notre petite souris parla de sa cousine, la souris naine, qui avait été si bonne pour elle, puis des délicieuses promenades que l'on faisait à la campagne.
- (b) Deux renards entrèrent la nuit par surprise dans un poulailler; ils étranglèrent le coq. les poules et les poulets. L'un qui était jeune et ardent, voulait tout devorér : l'autre qui était vieux et avare, voulait gardait quelque provision pour l'avenir. Le vieux disait: "Mon enfant. l'expérience m'arendu sage, ne mangeons pas tout notre bien en un seul jour, c'est un trésor que nous avons trouvé, il faut le ménager." Le jeune répondait: "Je veux tout manger pendant que j'y suis, car il ne fera pas bon revenir ici demain: le mattre, pour venger la mort de ses poules nous tuerait. Après cette conversation chacun prend son parti. Le jeune mange tant qu 'il peut à peine aller mourir dans son terrier Le vieux veut le lendemain retourner à sa proie, et est assommé par le maître.

Jem neither worked nor played, but sauntered or lounged about restless and yawning. His father was an alehouse-keeper, and being generally drunk, could take no care of his son; so that lazy Lawrence grew every day worse and worse. However some of the neighbours said that he was a good natured poor fellow enough, and would never do any one harm but himself; whilst others, who were wiser, often shook their heads, and told him that idleness was the root of all evil.

"What, Lawrence!" Cried Jem to him when he saw him lying on the grass—"what, are you asleep?" "Not quite." "Are you awake?" "Not quite." "What are you doing there?" "Nothing." "What are you thinking of?" "Nothing." "What makes you lie there?" I don't know—because I can't find anybody to play with me to-day. "Will you come and play?" "No, I can't, I am busy." "Busy!" cried Lawrence stretching himself—"you are always busy. I would not be you for the world, to have so much to do always." "And I" said Jem, laughing, "would not be you for the world, to have nothing to do."
